DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the specification does not meet the requirements of 37 CFR 1.77(b), see the illustration below.

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.*
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.*
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.*
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.*
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.*
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.*
 - (1) Field of the Invention.*
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.*
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.*
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING (S).*
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.*
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).*
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).*
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).*

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

1. Claims 6 and 7 are objected to because of the following informalities: claims 6 and 7 are missing the claim's status such as original or currently amended in the response filed on 01/20/2006.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, in public use, or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Max Baermann US 2,747,944 A [hereinafter Max].

3. Regarding claim 1, at [figs. 1-3] Max teaches a magnetic bearing element [fig. 1] having at least one annular permanent magnet [3, 4] that is surrounded by an annular binding band [4a], wherein the permanent magnet [3, 4] is divided at least one location [as seen in figs. 1-3 magnets 3, 4 are divided and they have a space in between] and spaced apart there.

4. Regarding claims 2-6, at [figs. 1-3] Max teaches that the location [as seen in figs. 1-3 magnets 3, 4 are divided and they have a space in between] is embodied as a radially extending slit [fig. 3], and the permanent magnet [3, 4] is divided and spaced apart at multiple locations [three concentric, annular, permanent magnets 20, 21 and 22, fig. 3]. Wherein the locations are distributed regularly over the periphery of the permanent magnet, and wherein the bearing element comprises multiple permanent magnets arranged concentrically with one another [three concentric, annular, permanent magnets 20, 21 and 22, fig. 3], all of which are divided at least one location and spaced apart there. The locations at which the permanent magnets are divided and there spaced apart are offset from one another in the circumferential direction [three concentric, annular, permanent magnets 20, 21 and 22 with a space in between, fig. 3].

Art Unit: 2832

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Max as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Koenig US 6,250,577 B1 [hereinafter Koenig].

7. Regarding Claim 7, Max discloses the claimed invention except for that the annular binding band is made from a carbon-fiber material. Koenig teaches that it is known to have a carbon-fiber material as set forth at [col. 2, lines 30-37]. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the carbon-fiber material in Max's bearing as taught by Koenig in order to provide a bearing surface on the bearing cylinder.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See the notice of references cited (PTO-892).
